

Railway Adventures Covid-19 Update

At Railway Adventures we take the safety of our travellers very seriously and we've been continuing to monitor the Covid-19 situation extremely closely, making decisions based on the information as it comes to hand.

While it is clear that international travel will be very slow to return, domestic travel is an essential part of getting our economy back on its feet. The government's roadmap for recovery will see regional travel returning and our group tours of up to 20 will most likely be able to go ahead as scheduled. Positive discussions around creating a 'Tasman Bubble' between Australia and New Zealand means we will soon see free movement between the two countries.

In light of all this, our latest update is:

International Departures in 2021

All international tours scheduled to depart in 2020 have been deferred to 2021 pending government approval to travel. New departure dates can be found on our website. We will keep the information as current as we can throughout the global emergence from this crisis.

What we can promise is that we'll;

- continue to work towards these tours departing as normal to ensure your travel experience is safe, highly enjoyable and memorable.

Australian and New Zealand Tours

At this stage, all our Australian tours from July 2020 are going ahead and will depart as planned. Obviously, we are following the local advice extremely closely and if things change, we will update you immediately.

We're all in this together

As an Australian boutique travel company with a history providing our guests with amazing travel experiences, we have seen many phases of the travel landscape and share the concern of all our travellers during this time.

We're committed to relying on the advice being provided by governments and medical authorities both here and in our destination countries to guide us in our responsible business decisions to ensure we continue to provide our travellers with memorable journeys.

We're committed to providing updated information as it comes to hand to enable all our travellers to make the best decision for them.

If you'd like additional information please don't hesitate to contact us directly on 1300 800 977, info@railwayadventures.com or reach out to your travel agent.
